GETTING INTO DUBLIN CITY CENTRE ON AN AVERAGE MORNING

City Centre Canal Cordon Count Trends to Travel to the City centre 2006 to 2015

33 locations around the cordon formed by the Royal and Grand Canals.
The counts are conducted during the month of November each year.
Since 1997 the counts have been conducted over the period between 07:00 and 10:00.

IN 2015

- Rail: 33%
- Bus: 29%
- Car: 9.5%
- Walk: 6%
- Cycle: 1.5%
- Luas: 3.3%
- Taxi: 1%

TRENDS 2015 COMPARED TO 2014

- Bus passenger numbers up by 1.6%
- Rail numbers up by 18.7%
- Luas numbers up by 7.1%
- Car numbers show negligible increase, effectively static
- Walking shows a decrease of 9.5%
- Cycling shows an increase of 5%

199,943 people crossed the canal cordon in 2015, 3.6% higher than 2014 and back to 2008 level.

TRENDS 2006 - 2015

Data sourced from the National Transport Authority and Dublin City Canal Cordon Report 2006 to 2015.
For more information, visit transportforireland.ie

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT TRANSPORTFORIRELAND.IE