Re: FOI request 2016-0004

Dear

I refer to the request which you made under the Freedom of Information Act 2014 for records held by this body:

a copy of the Dublin Residential Parking Survey

I, Jackie Mullen, have now made a final decision to grant your request on February 5.

You have sought access to the records by electronic means and I consider this an appropriate form of access in this case. Accordingly, a copy of the report is now attached.

In the event that you are not happy with this decision you can make an appeal in relation to this matter, you can do so by writing to the Freedom of Information Unit, National Transport Authority, Dun Scéine, Harcourt Lane, Dublin 2 or by e-mail to foi@nationaltransport.ie. You should make your appeal within 4 weeks (20 working days) from the date of this notification, where a day is defined as a working day excluding, the weekend and public holidays, however, the making of a late appeal may be permitted in appropriate circumstances.

The appeal will involve a complete reconsideration of the matter by a more senior member of the staff of this body.

Should you have any questions or concerns regarding the above, please contact me by telephone on 01 879

Yours sincerely,

Jackie Mullen

Re: FOI request 2016-0004

Dear

I refer to your request dated January 30th, which was received by this office by email on that day which you made under the Freedom of Information Act 2014 for records held by this FOI body. Your request sought:

a copy of the Dublin Residential Parking Survey

The decision maker handling your request is Jackie Mullen (cc'd above), who can be contacted at 01 879 8397. A final decision on your request would normally be sent to you within 4 weeks, where a week is defined as 5 working days excluding the weekend / public holidays. You can therefore expect a decision letter to issue not later than February 27th.

There are some limited situations under the FOI Act which could mean that the period for a final decision may be longer than this 4 week period. If this occurs in the case of your request, you will be advised promptly in writing setting out the reason and the new decision date.

Should our final decision not reach you on time, please feel free to contact the decision maker named above to discuss any problems that may have arisen. If you have not heard from us once the allotted time has expired, you are automatically entitled to appeal for a review of the matter. This review proceeds on the legal basis that the initial request is considered to be refused once the specified time for responding to it has expired. The review is a full and new examination of the matter carried out by a more senior member of staff.

In the event that you need to request such a review, you can do so by writing to FOI Unit, National Transport Authority, Dún Scéine, Harcourt Lane, Dublin 2, or alternatively by sending an e-mail to foi@nationaltransport.ie.

You should state that you are seeking this review because an initial decision was not sent to you within the time allowed for a response. In that event, you would normally have 4 weeks (after the initial decision should have been sent to you) in which to make the appeal. Consideration will be given to late applications in appropriate circumstances.

Should you wish to discuss the above, please contact me by telephone at 1

Yours sincerely,

Sara Morris
