Current fares were approved in October 2014 but were not introduced until Leap e-purse was available in September 2015. There will be no increase in December 2015 for cash and Leap single and return fares.
 *When using Leap passengers need to tag-on before their journey and tag-off afterwards. If they do not tag-off they will be charged the Maximum Leap Deduction which is greater than the most expensive Leap fare.
 Note: Leap return fares simply represent two Leap single fares.

Note*: Two single Leap journeys on the Leap e-Purse should cost €9.30 for zone D or €9.54 for zone E but Leap capping limits the daily charge to €9.20

Note: Two adult single Leap journeys on the Leap e-Purse should cost €9.30 for zone D or €9.54 for zone E but Leap capping limits the daily charge to €9.20

Note: Leap return fares simply represent two Leap single fares.
