

Smarter Travel Student Awards

The Judging Panel

Laura Dennehy

Country Manager at Enactus Ireland

Laura Dennehy graduated from University College Cork in 2004 with a BA in Language and Cultural Studies, French and History. Youth leadership development has been the focus of her career and she is passionate about empowering others and creating positive social change. Laura worked for Foróige, The National Youth Development Organisation for eight years in several roles, including, general Youth Worker, Youth Justice Project Coordinator and Service Manager.

In 2012 Laura took up the role of Country Manager with Enactus Ireland (then called SIFE Ireland). Combining youth development with social enterprise has been an exciting learning journey and a challenge that Laura thoroughly enjoys.

Category 1
Engineering
& Innovation