Eoin Morton

Public Affairs Manager at Skillnet

Eoin is a Public Affairs Manager at Skillnet Ireland, the business support agency of the Government of Ireland. Eoin has over a decade of experience in communications and public affairs, supporting environmental and sustainability initiatives, having worked in Irish Water and An Taisce prior to his role at Skillnet Ireland. He has been heavily involved in advancing environmental education programmes such as Neat Street, Green-Schools and played a pivotal role working to end the discharge of raw sewage during his time in Irish Water.

Eoin is also a former professional cyclist who represented Ireland around the world, having won at the highest level. Since retiring from the sport Eoin remains a keen cyclist and is passionate about sustainable travel.
