Selection Methods

The National Transport Authority will convene an expert board to carry out the competitive stages of the selection process to the highest standards of best practice. The approach employed may include:

- Shortlisting of candidates on the basis of the information contained in their application;
- Competitive interview;
- A second round interview;
- Completion of an online questionnaire(s);

- Reference and online checks.

Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position the Authority will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the recruitment process have been fully completed a final determination cannot be made nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made.

Please Note: If you come under consideration for appointment, you will be required to:

1. Undertake a medical with the NTA company doctor

It is also the NTA's preference that your nominated referee has worked with you within the previous five years. Please be assured that we will only collect the details and contact referees should you come under consideration at interview stage.

Should the person recommended for appointment decline, or having accepted it, relinquish it, the Authority may at its discretion, select and recommend another person for appointment on the results of this selection process.

The Authority will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred by candidates.
